

Aspects of Beijing Opera

京劇面面觀

Mei Lanfang Beijing Opera Troupe visits UCI!

Lecture, Demonstration, Performance

What is Beijing Opera? Are you curious about the elaborate makeup and costume? What is painted face? How does a man produce such high-pitched sound? What kind of musical instruments do they use? How do you interpret all the symbolic signs?

--Find your answers here!--

Date: October 16, Thursday

Time: 3-5pm

3-4pm lecture and demonstration

4-5pm Performance and Q & A

Location: Winifred Smith Hall

This event also include two short performances:

The Crossroad (Fighting in the Dark 三岔口)

Picking up the Jade Bracelet (拾玉鐲)

Free and Open to Public

There is a makeup workshop at the lobby area of Winifred Smith Hall at 2pm.
Please RSVP (dlei@uci.edu) for this special event. Space is limited.

Co-sponsored by California Institute for Chinese Performing Arts & the Drama Department at UCI