Research every well-educated labor economics PhD student should know (as crowdsourced on Twitter)

David Neumark

Last updated June 14, 2021

(Please send additional suggestions: dneumark@uci.edu)

Texts

Labor supply

Labor demand

Human capital

Returns to schooling

Signaling

Wage structure/inequality

Labormetrics

Self-selection

Unemployment and search

Matching

Discrimination

Minimum wages

Neighborhood effects/location decisions

Incentives

Unions

Trade

Program evaluation

Earnings mobility

Immigration

Class size

Gender differences

Schools and test scores

Monopsony

Place-based policies

Job displacement

Natural experiments/Experiments

Technology