COMMENTS

11. <No question text>

1. What were the strongest points of the TA in discussion section or office hours?

- Extremely helpful and obviously takes pride in helping students learn. In discussion she went over everything you needed to know, and despite the time constraint, she stayed after with students who wanted to, so that all the material was covered. Sometimes the problem sets were just too long to cover in 50 minutes.
- Discussion section was extremely helpful to start off and complete homework problems.
- made sure students understood material to be covered in the midterms, went over homework thoroughly and as accurately as possible, gave overview of what students were supposed to learn in class in discussions
- The TA was really clear on the material. I learned more in the discussions than I did in the lectures. I wish the discussions were longer so that I could learn more of the material from the TA. The TA should be allowed to teach the class.
- summarizing key points during lab
- Friendly, concise about course material, and can explain the material clearly.
- Helpful in further explaining main concepts mentioned in class by emphasizing them during discussion. TA provides very good explanations and interpretations.
- She explained the material very well. She was very patient and helpful with me and my classmates.
- She knew the material very well and was willing to help the students.
- She obviously understood the material. Her answers to questions were sufficient.
- The strongest points of the T.A. were his tardiness and his patience with students, even though we were not left with a lot of time to ask questions.
- Clear communicator. Answered all questions directly and clearly.
- The T.A. taught the students more than the professor did.
- knew the material. presented what we needed to know
- going over hw solutions
- 12 blank answer(s).

2. Do you have any recommendations for your TA that would help that person be a more effective TA in the future?

- Keep working on her english, it is good and mostly understandable, sometimes it can be difficult to grasp her speech, not often thou. Hao (Audrey) is one of the most effective TA's I have had here at Irvine and I learned a lot more because of the many times she went out of her way to help me with the material.
- keep up the good work!
- you go way too fast
- I've only had one discussion session with this TA, but it would be great for her to slow down her pace in discussion.
- Keep up the good work!
- NONE
