Brief Amicus Curiae (of leading immigration scholars) in Support of Plaintiffs to the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Ninth Circuit, in Rodriguez v. Hayes (case challenging the prolonged detention of immigrants during removal proceedings without bond hearings). No. 12-56734. November 2012. [In April 2013 the Ninth Circuit affirmed the lower court’s decision granting bond hearings to immigrants detained longer than six months; approximately two-thirds of those bond hearings have resulted in the release of the immigrant from detention on bond. The Court also found that the balance of hardship tipped in favor of immigrant detainees who suffer irreparable harm as a result of prolonged detention.]
