

TEACHING EXPERIENCE:

ADJUNCT PROFESSOR:

- San Diego Community College District, San Diego Spring 2005-Present
Sociology/Qualified to teach: Political Science
Courses include:
SOC 101 Principles of Sociology (online and onsite)
SOC 110 Contemporary Social Problems (online and onsite)
SOC 223 Globalization and Social Change: Politics, Economy, and Culture: (course was designed by applicant/online)
- National University, San Diego 2005-Present
Sociology and Area Studies
Courses include:
SOC 100 Introduction to Sociology (onsite and online)
SOC 344 Marriage, Sex, and Family
SOC 499: Capstone Seminar (Sociology BA Thesis) (course designed by applicant/online)
SOC 540 Power and Social Change
HIS 348: History and Cultures of Asia (course designed by applicant/online)
HIS 345: History and Cultures of Latin America (course designed by applicant/online)
HIS 350: Cultural Diversity (online)
- Coast Community College District, Costa Mesa Fall 2006-Present
SOC 180: Introduction to Sociology (online and onsite)
SOC 110: Marriage, Sex, and Family (online and onsite))

TEACHING ASSISTANTSHIPS AT UCSD: September 2003-July 2005

- International Perspectives on Society and Culture, INTL 101, International Studies, Fall 2004
Prof. Christena Turner, Sociology Dept.
- Economic History of Latin America INTL102, International Studies, Spring 2004
Prof. Christine Hunefeldt, History Dept.
- Cotemporary Social Change SOC 181, Sociology Department, Spring 2003
Prof. Carlos Waisman, Sociology Dept.
- Western Societies SOC 170, Sociology Department, Spring 2003
Prof. Carlos Waisman, Sociology Dept.
- Spanish, Second Level, Fall 2003
Linguistics Dept.

PROFESSIONAL WORK EXPERIENCE:

ADVERTISING/MARKETING AND EDITORIAL ASSISTANT

2001-2003

Random House, Inc., New York, NY

- Act as a liaison between journals, bookstores and book critics in promoting new book titles.
- Help plan and coordinate book and promotional events.
- In charge of accounts payable and invoices.
- Accompany authors during book promotions and signings.
- In accordance with the Marketing and Advertising Director, develop and layout marketing campaigns.
- Acquire book deals especially from up and coming authors by attending book fairs and establishing connections with agents.
- Proofread and edit manuscripts and write reader's report for submissions. With approval from the Editor, give presentations to Senior Editors about possible book contracts.
- Copyedit catalogue and advertisements and develop marketing campaigns.
- Write blurbs for the online catalogue.
- Oversee and update information in the website

- Maintain book production and catalogue schedule.

PROGRAM AND RESEARCH ASSISTANT

1999-2001

The Asia Society, New York

- Conduct research and compile reports to submit to the Director outlining trends and current events in Asia, specifically, Southeast Asia.
- Assist in developing, planning, and, coordinating events.
- In charge of subscription orders and answering questions about The Asia Society publication, “The Asian Archive”.
- Meet, Greet, and welcome foreign delegates and other visitors to the Society.
- Maintain contact information of current members and prospective members using FileMaker Pro.
- Assisting in developing marketing strategies.

ASSISTANT STUDENT AFFAIRS OFFICER

1999-2001

School of International and Public Affairs, Columbia University, New York, NY

- Answer questions from incoming and current students about the program.
- Work closely with the Dean of Admissions in evaluating prospective candidates.
- Help plan and coordinate events for the department.
- Give campus tours to prospective students.
- Acted as a Research Assistant for the Public Affairs Dean.

EDUCATIONAL BACKGROUND:

University of California, Irvine (UCI)

Ph.D Sociology

Current Student

University of California, San Diego (UCSD)

M.A. Sociology/Latin American Studies

Thesis: Peripheral Participation: Urban Social Movements and Democracy in Peru

Adviser: Christine Hunefeldt (History Dept.), Carlos Waisman (Sociology Dept.), and Christena Turner (Sociology Dept.)

Columbia University

B.A Political Science/Political Sociology; Concentration: International Politics and American Government

Thesis: American Foreign Policy and Ethnic Conflicts

Adviser: David Baldwin

AWARDS: Center for Iberian and Latin American Studies Travel Grant, 2004; San Diego Fellowship, 2003-2005; Columbia Univ. Scholarship, 4 years.

OPERATING SYSTEMS: Windows XP, 2000, 98, 95,

SOFTWARE: Access, Excel, Office XP, Dreamweaver, PowerPoint, Word, Excel Microsoft Publisher, Outlook, Photoshop, Adobe Acrobat, Vista, WebCT, and WebCTVista, ECollege.

Languages: Speak, Write, and Read: Spanish and Tagalog

Academic Interests: Social Change, Globalization, Urban Studies, Political Theory, Media, Third World Development, and Democratic Transitions