3rd International Conference
The Work of Karl Marx and the challenges of the 21st Century
Havana May 3 to 6 - Palacio de las Convenciones

At a particularly difficult crossroad in the history of humanity at a time when there is an increase in the aggressive tendencies of neo-fascists spearheaded by North American imperialism, but which are being through concerted resistance by the peoples of all corners of the earth, the Institute of Philosophy, through the programs initiated by its Permanent Workshop, convokes social activists, politicians and political scientists as well as all who are interested to the 3rd International Conference on "Karl Marx and the challenges of the 21st century". The Institute at this conference calls for the development of new debates and proposals for the construction of a necessary and possible new world.

This conference is dedicated to the 50th Anniversary of the landing of the yacht "Granma" - a historical event which marked the beginning of the last stage of the struggle of the Cuban people for their independence and sovereignty, and also celebrates XIXth Congress of the Central Cuban Workers Federation

This conference is run under the co-auspices of the following institutions:
